

Krista Archambault
(616) 916-9759
karchambault.violin@gmail.com

Professional Music Experience:

Holland Symphony Orchestra, Assistant Concertmaster (July 2018–present)

Battle Creek Symphony Orchestra, Violinist (October 2012–present)

Southwest Michigan Symphony Orchestra, Substitute Violinist (September 2017–present)

Grand Rapids Actor's Theatre, Violinist (November 2015–February 2018)

Shadblow Theatre, Violinist (June 2017–July 2017)

Self-Employed Violinist (December 2010–present)

- Perform music for weddings, receptions, and other events
- Select appropriate music for clients' needs
- Contact other musicians to form chamber ensembles

Private Violin Instruction:

Self-Employed (January 2016–present)

Marshall Music Company (May 2015–March 2019)

French Woods Festival of the Performing Arts (June 2014–August 2014)

Education:

Grand Valley State University, Bachelor of Music (April 2016)

Grand Valley State University Symphony Orchestra and Chamber Orchestra,

Concertmaster/Co-Concertmaster (September 2012–April 2016)

- Scheduled and led sectional rehearsals
- Coordinated meetings with other section leaders
- Consulted with the conductor regarding decisions affecting the orchestra
- Toured London, England in 2013

Grand Valley State University New Music Ensemble, Violinist (September 2012–April 2016)

- Performed contemporary music
- Performed with a variety of instrumentations based on a Pierrot ensemble
- Collaborated with both professional and student composers
- Premiered compositions on a National Parks tour in 2014
- Premiered compositions on a Midwest tour in 2016

String Quartet, First Violinist/Second Violinist/Violist (September 2011–December 2015)

- Addressed musical and logistical issues in rehearsals
- Directed the ensemble

Baroque Ensemble, Violinist (January 2013–April 2013)

- Performed on a Baroque violin and bow
- Performed at Baroque tuning